

The background of the image features three globes. The globe on the left is partially visible, showing the Americas. The central globe is more prominent, displaying Europe and Africa. The globe on the right is also partially visible, showing Asia and Australia. The globes are slightly out of focus, creating a sense of depth. The word "GEOGRAPHY" is superimposed over the central globe.

GEOGRAPHY

Biogeography

Terms related to soil

Soil profile

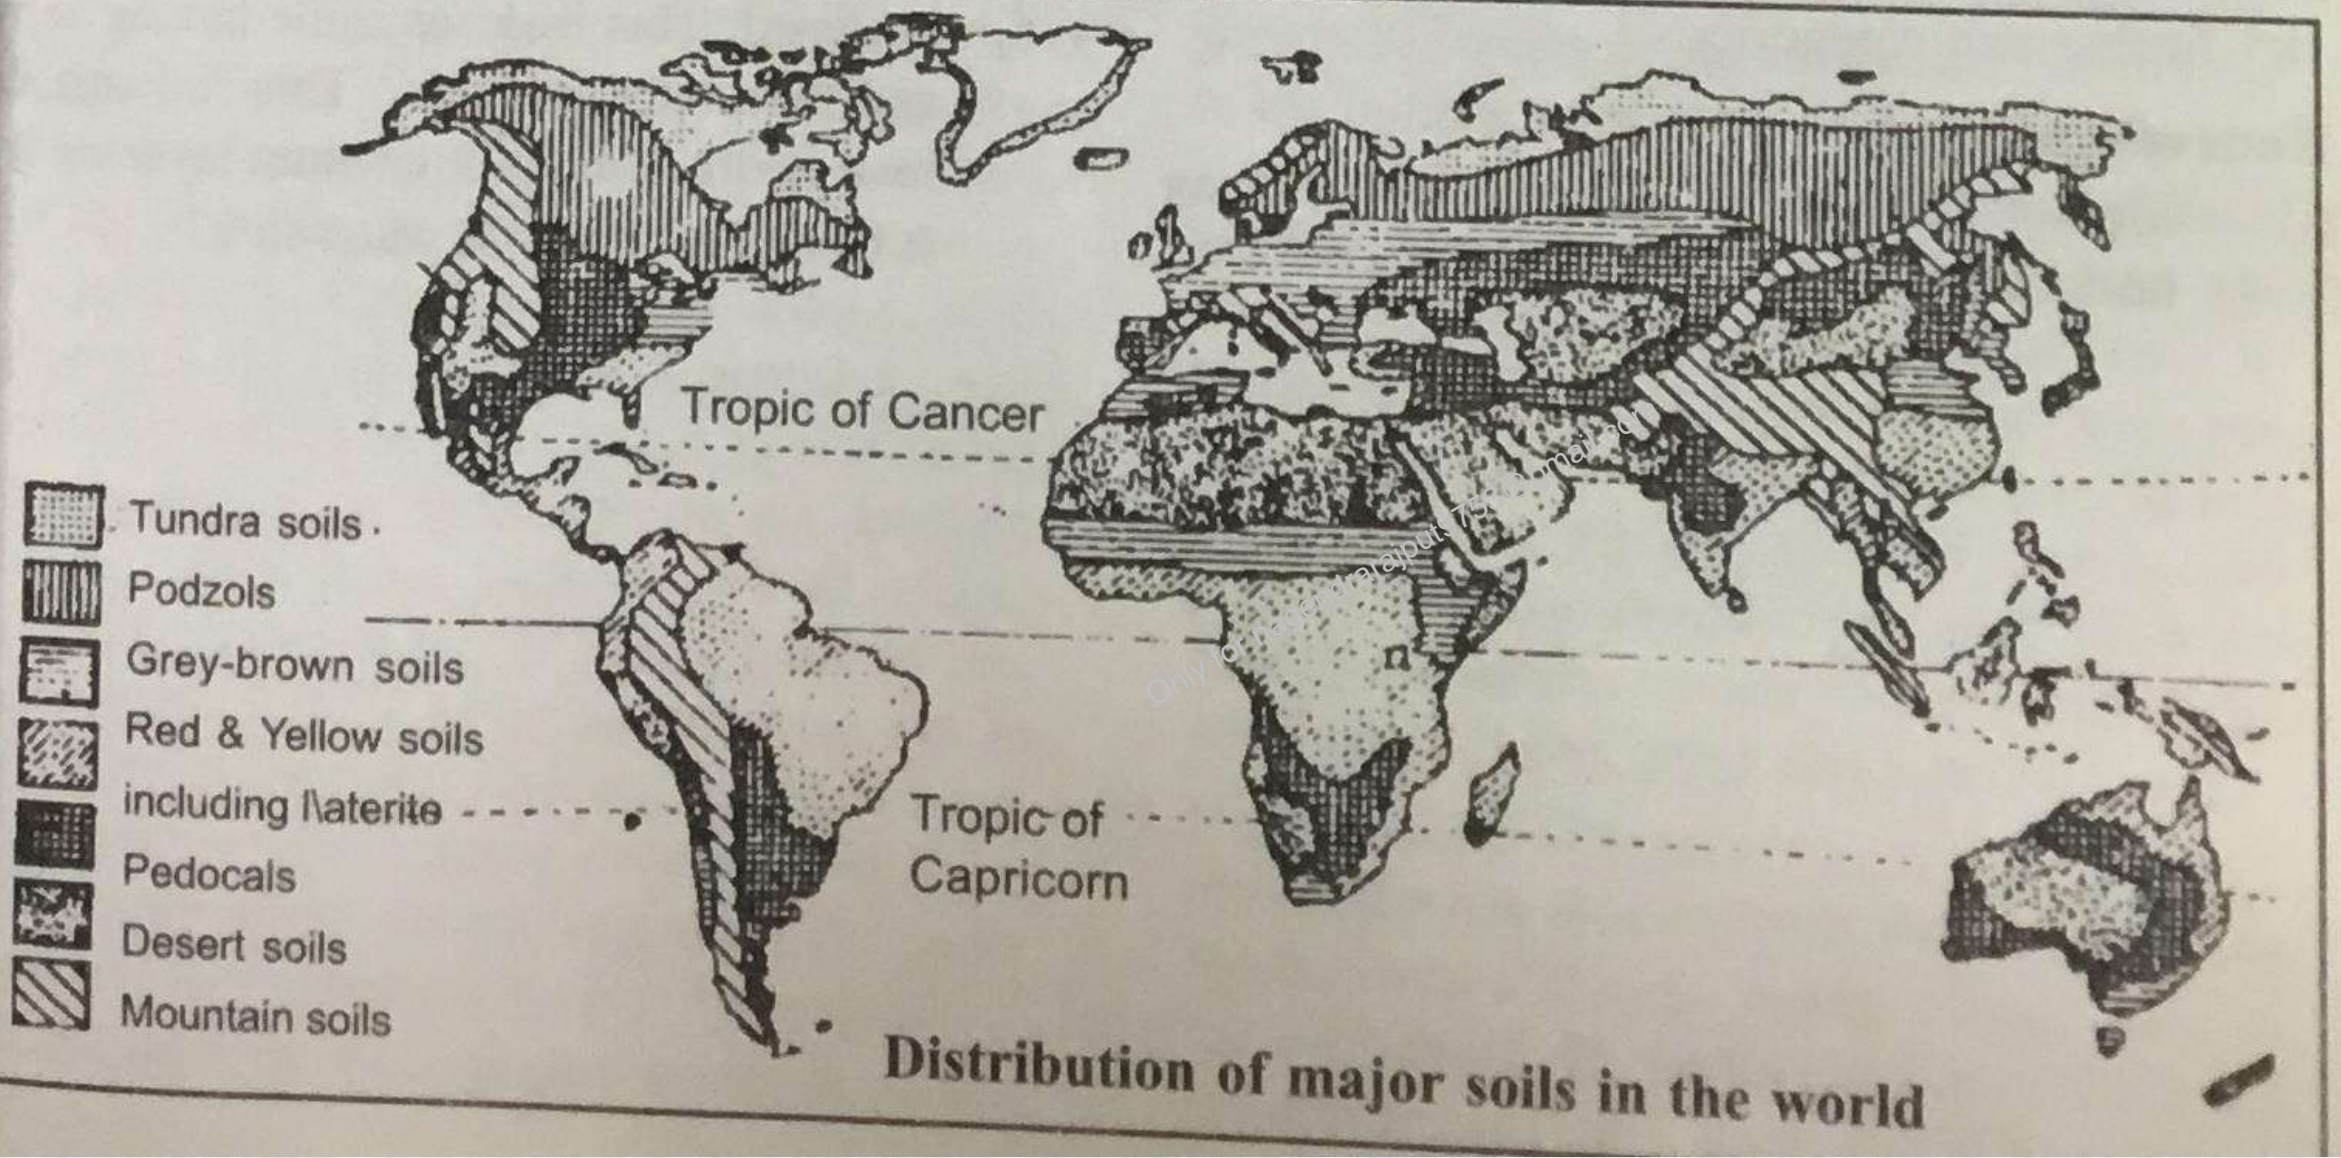

Soil Genesis – Factors affecting

Soil formation processes

Types of soil

Soil type (as per USDA taxonomy)	Meaning
Entisol	Fresh alluvial
Inceptisol	Old alluvial, volcanic soil
Spodosol	Podzol soil
ALFIsol	Leached soil with Al & Fe
Ultisol	Laterite soil
Oxisol	Top layer strongly weathered with rich Al & Fe
Vertisol	Black soil
Histosol	Peaty soil rich in organic matter
Mollisol	Prairie soil
Aridisol	Desert soil

2011	Salinization occurs when the irrigation water accumulated in the soil evaporates, leaving behind salts and minerals. What are the effects of salinization on the irrigated land? (a) It greatly increases the crop production. (b) It makes some soils impermeable. (c) It raises the water table. (d) It fills the air spaces in the soil with water
------	---

Questions??

- Online query (For faster reply)
- Read and revise what is taught
- Read the reference material
- Mentoring sessions

If Dil Maange beyond MORE...

Mail: rajesh@visionias.in

Twitter: @naturiousoul